- 'Vote One'

Perth playwright
- 'A Dragon is Essential'

MC for the night:
Con Galvin

Soft drinks on sale

Bring a plate of food for supper

Club night is a fun, social event for RLT members and supporters, adults through to juniors, to get together, catch up and 'get theatrical'. We try and host a Club night a couple of times a year and this is our first for 2024. Ken Cotterill Ken Cotterill - Playwright (doollee.com) and James Forte James Forte (doollee.com) have given permission for us to use three of their scripts for a 'read aloud'. A great opportunity to immerse yourself in different characters, discuss the pros and cons of the plays and get some practice with reading outside an audition environment. Come along ready to watch, participate and discuss. Please bring cash to purchase soft drink and water, and a plate for a shared supper.

Last Friday and Saturday evening, Broadway and Beyond took to the Pilbeam Theatre stage to entertain its large audience.

Performers in this phenomenal show included some of our very own staff here at TCC. Congratulations to the following staff for an excellent show:

- Stephanie Quinlan – Musical Director & Bass Player
- Brandi Luck – Woodwind Player
- Madison Macdonald – Singer & Dancer

As well as past student Jazna Smith (Dancer) and College Speech & Drama Coach, Amanda Hock (Singer)

WEEK 4

TCC/Parish Mass Date Change

Please be advised that the date for the next TCC/Parish Mass has been moved to Saturday 18 May. Mass will commence at the regular time of 6pm. Students in the Music Ministry group are reminded that rehearsal will commence at 5pm. All are most welcome to attend.

Thursday 9 May, we will be celebrating our Mums and all they do for us. If you are available, please join the Mother's Day Mass, commencing at 8am at St. Joseph's Cathedral. Following Mass will be a morning tea. Students, please invite your Mums, Grandmothers, and special women in your life along to this special event.
