Newsletter in new format

Ex-teacher appeared in Court today and letter was sent out today in relation to same

Number of events coming up this term with some events able to go ahead in a changed format

Academic Awards for Semester 1 will be a parent-free event

Strong emphasis in the school in terms of regulations to keep grades up

House assemblies are held in tighter areas so not possible to separate the grades so these will continue online

TCC Day is cancelled

School sport is only being offered to open grades – boys rugby league & basketball and the girls touch and soccer and will start week 3 and finish week 7

The only non-open activity is the under 15 rugby league team which is a 6 team competition with teams from the north

Formal – will be a glamour evening on the last day of this term and a farewell at the end of week 3 in term 4 (liturgy & guard of honour) – formal will be parent-free – families can be involved in walk-through – working on ways to make it special as dancing is not allowed – once times are confirmed letters will be distributed to Year 12 parents

Approximately 80 or 90 Year 12s are preparing for external exams and will be doing final assessments in this next term or so

All students have been given a study guide to help with their revision so that they don't leave it until the end

End of term there will be mock external exams which will be set by the same body that is setting the papers

Term 4 will only have 3 weeks of final review before sitting final exams
